PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Account management and stakeholder coordination professional with 10+ years managing client and partner relationships, cross-functional teams, and multi-account program delivery across broadcast media, retail, healthcare, and study abroad industries. Experienced serving as the coordination bridge between business stakeholders, creative/technical teams, and external partners - translating goals into actionable plans and improving conversion outcomes by 20-30 percentage points across multiple accounts. Currently building and operating CRM systems and AI-enabled workflows (including AI-generated video production) to bring automation value into day-to-day operations. Comfortable with escalation handling, executive-facing communication, and negotiating win-win outcomes under fast-paced, multi-stakeholder conditions.

RELEVANT STRENGTHS

- 10+ years of client-facing coordination across account management, business development, and campaign/program delivery
- Track record of building the operational and communication infrastructure behind a business - not just executing within it (CRM design, workflow systems, documentation)
- Cross-functional stakeholder coordination between clients, creative teams, production stakeholders, sponsors, and vendors
- Direct experience improving conversion and engagement metrics through structured, data-informed communication (20% to 55%; 30% to 60%)
- Familiarity with AI/automation applied to real operations - built a CRM from scratch and produce AI-generated video content for business use, not just as a concept
- Escalation handling and relationship-driven negotiation in high-value, high-pressure environments (luxury retail, live broadcast)
